HARVESTING IN CENTRAL ALBERTA NEARS COMPLETION

Canadian Northern Crop Report Says Safety of All Crops Is Assured—No Damage From Frost—Weather Outfit Finished—Ideal Weather for Harvest

Rapid strides towards the completion of cutting of crops in the Edmonton district; in many sections the total wheat crop harvested, and at least 75 per cent of other grain; the almost entire absence of damage by reason of frost; and the assured safety of crops are the outstanding features of the Canadian Northern's crop report for week ending 31st September. Throughout the Edmonton subdivision there is reported a continuation of almost ideal weather. Broaderleaf, Levee, Fort Saskatchewan, Chippewa, Lamont, Innisfree, Vegreville and Mundare announce the completion of cutting of the large majority of crops in many cases 75 per cent, and anticipate that another week of fine weather will see not less than 90 per cent of all crops in stock. Threshold is expected to begin next week, and it is safe to assume that if those are harvested safely, they will be easily the best in the history of the district.

No statements are reported as yet, but these are expected to begin about September 21st to 23rd.

All the crops, except a few fields of very late oats, are beyond any danger from frost.

About 50 per cent of crop in Sturgeon Plain district has been cut, and the weather is favorable for harvesting. Some of the early showers have fallen. Some of the oats are still too green for cutting, but the best part of 50 per cent and barley is ready to cut. In the Canadian Northern's report, it is general. A heavy rain storm, accompanied by hail, did a little damage, but not in the large areas reported.

Very favorable weather, broken by occasional showers, has been experienced in the St. Albert and Sturgeon district, where cutting is proceeding rapidly, and about 50 per cent of grain is left standing. Here all crops are reported to be in excellent condition, and no damage from frost has taken place.

THE CITY HALL

Ask for Spur Track

As soon as plans are forwarded to the city solicitor there is to make application to the board of railway commissioners for permission to lay a spur track into Block 12, Intermountain, where the new park for the stores and work department are to be situated.

Superintendent Ormsby Puzzled

Superintendent Ormsby of the electric light department is puzzled as to why it is that departments are allowed on their credit balance a rate of 3 per cent, interest and are charged on the debit balance at a rate of 5 per cent. The city treasurer, he says, in a letter to the commissioner, stated that the reason was that the borrowing money from the bank the city has to pay six and a half per cent, but the interest on the department's debt is only 3 per cent.

As the electric light department has a total surplus of close to $100,000 for this fiscal year alone, a difference of three per cent in interest means quite a large matter.

P. Barnes & Co. Arrives to Terms

P. Barnes & Co. has notified Mayor that the company is agreeable to the terms on which the city will make temporary access to the plant in North Edmonton, and on which Spadina avenue will be paved from the Port trail into the plant. The city is supplying a 4-inch pipe, and connecting the plant with the sewer at the exhibition grounds.

The company is to pay for the pipe, and the understanding that the city will take it back when the permanent sewer is laid. The company is to do the work and to cut the pipe, and also of pumping the sewage from the plant to the fair grounds.

As to the paving of Spadina avenue, the company is to provide the funds necessary to do the work and to cut the pipe, and also of pumping the sewage from the plant to the fair grounds.

The work is to be started just as soon as possible.

Cash Coming In Slowly.
City Collector Gentile is finding that

American apathy towards the big black heavyweight champion is illustrated in the statement of a prominent newspaper man stationed in gas.

Parry, who says that Yankee's intended amusement shows where Johnson was showing absolutely with the expectation that something would kill the "big smoke."

The time has arrived in the history of the west when it has become necessary that facilities of some kind are provided whereby the future citizens may be equipped to take up the present.

Our skilled mechanics have been imported from the other countries, and while we lower the cost of our industry, it must be perfectly subject to any person who gives the west cannot continue to recruit.

As the young westerner is not still in the opportunity to acquire any of the trades he must perform at in the capacity of laborer.

The skilled artisans from other lands, and the absence of such a facility has doubtless resulted in some of the most rapid settlement of the west. For this reason the Canadian International Trades School, recently instituted in premises on Queen's avenue. Beginning with instruction in the intention of the management to add branches from time to time for the training of other trades.

As a decided acquisition to the city province and should be heartily welcomed by all who are interested in the future of the west, and particularly in the heads of families who have the question of what to do with their sons is often a very difficult one in the west.

The course of instruction offered by the Canadian International Trades School is a thoroughly practical work, and we have no doubt the much needed institution will be largely taken advantage of.

The course is to be done by a staff of practical experts.

The "general monetary stringency" is affecting his work of gathering in the outstanding cheques.

In a report to the commissioners he stated that the collection of cheques amounted to $122 at the end of the month of 1917.

"Although my efforts were as strenuous as before," he explained, "the general monetary stringency and the diminishing in value of the bank notes as a result of my hands caused this less favorable result."

Mr. Gentile has been collecting all kinds of cheques, including waterworks, telephone, electric, light and gas bills.

Ask City to Take Over Site

The Edmonton Board is asking the city to take over the old cannery site on the south side of Block 172, River 125—which was originally purchased by the Board from John Walter.

In a letter to the city commissioners received yesterday, the city treasurer, Dr. H. Leonard stated that the board would like the city to hand the money over to the board, the purchase price to be fixed at least at the assessed value.

The commissioners referred the matter to the mayor.

Applies for Position

Understanding that applications are being received by the city commissioner for a local improvement officer, P. M. Barnes, formerly assistant superintendent of the parks department, is applying for the position.

New Base For Roadways

How to convert old ties into a base for roadways on concrete and other marshy spots, is a little problem that has been receiving a good deal of attention from Spadina.

condition would be suitable, but it would accommodate almost twice the number of people as the present playground, and would be cleared out.

"On Twenty-first street in the west end there are three acres of property on which good risks could be secured. This place is opposite to the new sewer, and would be well suited to be cleared or purchased. The second place is on the east side of Twenty-first street and north of Peace avenue. This is possibly most suitable as it is cleared and has a very fine view of the city.

"On the north side, McRann's lake, lying west of Peace avenue, and south of Sixth street, is a very attractive piece of water for an open park. In the east end, the site of the old cannery is a very attractive piece of water for an open park. In the east end, the site of the old cannery is a very attractive piece of water for an open park.

Mr. Jackson anticipates that if the city starts these risks, it will be able to place a man in charge of each risk to look after the ice and see that risk is not used at night. Hockey should be prohibited on these free risks, he believes, to leave room for ordinary skating.

Proposed Toboggan Slide.
The toboggan slide is to be placed on the east side of Thirtieth street. It will start above the railway tracks, and run down to cutting in the trees there.

"The," says Mr. Jackson, "should provide a course three-quarters of a mile in length, and according to those who have seen the toboggan slide in Toronto and Montreal, would make the slide here equal to that in Montreal and other cities.

For the present, he is limited to the site of the old cannery, and wide and capable accommodation, two slides or toboggans. It would be a very attractive piece of water for an open park.

In summer, by placing strips or steps, this would make a very comfortable and safe slide for the children.

World Cost Only $200.
On the plan, the height of the start above the railway tracks is 20 feet, and the very little building on this could be raised to 24 feet. The estimated cost of the whole affair is $200.

Mr. Jackson also suggests smaller slide starting further down the hill, and a skating rink on the level ground on the old gas works.

In carrying out this work," says Mr. Jackson, "I would like to point out that the average man is totally untrained in the construction of playgrounds, as he has no knowledge of what is required."

He says that a man who is experienced in sports, as well as possessing engineering skill, is required for the work.

Mr. Jackson suggests that P. M. Barnes, formerly with the parks department, and who has been in charge of the work on the south side park, be given the work.

"I think the paving program is one of the most important of the year at the amount that it costs. It is a very important program, and it should be completed as soon as possible."

He said that he had some old ties at the fair grounds, and he had some old ties at the fair grounds.

MRS. PANKHURST WELL.

NOT TALK MILITANCY.

London, Sept. 10.—Miss Joan Wickham, of the Women's Social and Political Union, says for America on the Centre on Thursday, to make arrangements for Mrs. Pankhurst's coming lecture there.

Speaking of her leader's plans, Miss Wickham said: "Mrs. Pankhurst does not intend to try to tell the American women how to achieve their own ends as far as suffrage is concerned. Any talk of her advocating militant methods there is foolish. She wants to take advantage of this crucial moment to impress upon women that the only way to eradicate such evils as the 'white slave' trade is through raising the status of women, and of course the main way to educate women is through the vote.

"The first lecture will be delivered about October 22 in New York, a week later, Mrs. Pankhurst will go to Boston, then to Chicago, and will visit other cities. Her tour will close about November 25. She is now in France, and is feeling better."

The militant leader will probably sail from Havre, as the British government might hinder her departure from a British port.

What the Advance Man Says

"OFFICER 666" TONIGHT

"Officer 666" is the most popular "cop" in America. He paraded last night at the Grand Theatre in New York and the Grand Opera House in Chicago all last year and while his presence in both these cities created a veritable riot, it was productive of interest only, and you can't arouse a person for just laughing.

"Officer 666" is now being sent out on road duty, and that famous shaver is in evidence at the Grand Theatre tonight, where local theatre goers will have their first opportunity to see this farce, that is as good as a farce as "Charley's Aunt" and more thrilling than "Sherlock Holmes" or "Arsene Lupin."

NEXT WEEK'S ORPHEUM

Col. Albertson, an Edmonton favorite who has been seen here in the star of "The Ruyter's Chimerich" and "The Isle of Splice," is the star of "The Dance Queen," which comes to the Empire theatre the first half of next week as the headline attraction of the Orpheum vaudeville bill.

This playlet set to music was originally produced by famous dancers, one of America's best known light comedians. Mr. Albertson is surrounded by six comely maids who know how to wear clothes, sing and dance.

Another act is supplied by Mack and Orth, who are a pair of song writers and comedians who supply a new brand of fun interspersed with some little ditties and musicals. Colan, daughter of the famous Rose Colan, will come in a sketch known as "The Obnoxious Miss Granger," which gives this versatile actress ample opportunity to display her ability.

CONFESSES MURDER OF BRANFORD BOY

Jas. Taylor, Half-Breed, Admits Killing 13-Year-Old Boy and Mutilating Body

Brantford, Ont., Sept. 10.—James Taylor, a half-breed, known in police circles as "Taylor the Spaniard," has confessed to the murder of 13-year-old John "Buck" Taylor, whose mutilated body was found early yesterday behind the road near Chalmersville. Taylor, who is of somewhat low mentality, had committed an offence against the community for which the penalty is life imprisonment, and killed him so that he would not "squeal."

Taylor told the authorities that he killed the boy shortly after nine o'clock Monday night at the spot where the body was found. Taylor told the police to the spot where he found it after less than five minutes' search.

Taylor said, as he was known, was a bright energetic boy, popular at school and was more than thirteen years old next month.

Taylor is about 27 years of age and has been regarded as a mad character. He has Indian blood.

THE EMPIRE IN DANGER

Canada trembles on the brink of the abyss of annexation. The United States Senate has passed a tariff reduction bill which averages four per cent lower than the same bill as it passed the House. Reductions are particularly large on such farm products as Canada supplies. In 1911 Canadians were exported in the name of love of country and the Empire to fight against the proposition that would give free or reduced rate of admission of Canadian farm products to the United States. If the United States Tariff Bill is agreed to by both Houses, the form in which it passed the Senate, all the horrors that were predicted in 1911 will have come to pass. The Yankee dollar will be found in the pockets of Canadian farmers and Canadian railways will be hauling Canadian products across the boundary line, and, horror of horrors! paying the dividends thus earned to the United States. Great Britain, thereby sapping the very foundation of the Empire.

All that remains for the savers of Canada to the Empire after 1911 is to impose a countervailing export duty on Canadian farm products going to the United States, so as to insure the Imperial loyalty of the Canadian people.

THE COUNCIL AND ITS DUTY

The city councillors cannot be congratulated on their refusal to investigate the causes of dismissal of Inspector Wright and Sergeant Edwards. The appeal of the case of the constables against the city for wages is an excuse, and a very paltry and insufficient excuse, not a reason. The question of wages is not the question of reasons for dismissal. The one is a matter of law, and the other a matter of city administration. For the one the courts are responsible; for the other the council is responsible. For the councillors to attempt to shelter themselves from their responsibility by getting behind the courts does not point in the direction of credit or efficiency. If the city had any evidence to offer as to reasons for the men's dismissal, in the court was the time and place to produce it. It was not produced. The case went against the city. For the city then to take advantage of the right of appeal is merely using the long purse against the short one as a means of defeating justice.

The question of whether a breach of discipline was committed by the officers in question is a matter between the people through their council and the officers. It is not a question of reinstatement. Clearly, there is no room in the same police force for the chief who dismissed the men and the men who were dismissed. But these men are policemen by trade. Their future employment at that trade depends upon their record for efficiency and observation of discipline. It is the council for an alleged breach of discipline, which they deny, and which has not been proven, although full opportunity was given, stands against the employment here or elsewhere, at that trade.

It is just as much in the power of the council to refuse investigation as it was to refuse to dismiss without cause. But it is not right. The citizens are entitled to know whether these men were or were not giving service for the money they were paid, as they are entitled to know through their elected representatives in the council.

The establishment of a reign of terror in the police force is not the best means of establishing a reign of terror among the crooks—if the experiences of recent weeks in Edmonton are any evidence.

A resident protests against fast auto driving in the city. Possibly he has exaggerated the condition as a whole. Careful observation would lead to the belief that the large majority of auto drivers of the city pay due regard to the speed laws and safety of their fellow citizens. But it is true that there is a minority who do not, and who should certainly be taken care of by the law. The rule that an auto must not pass a street car which has stopped to take on or discharge passengers has been found necessary in other cities, and may have to be established here. But if all the auto drivers only travelled at the speed that the majority of the city would be no necessity for imposing such an inconvenient restriction.

SCRUB SHOULD BE CLEARED, SAYS THIS MAN.
 Editor Bulletin,
 Sir,—After living in this city for 14 years and having, therefore, had an opportunity to observe the appearance of it from almost every angle, I am of the opinion that it is the duty of the city to clear up the scrub which is a disgrace to the city. I am not referring to the scrub which is a natural growth, but to the scrub which is a result of human carelessness. HARRY RADFORD OUTFITTED HERE ON TRIP NORTH

New Yorker, Murdered by Eskimos, Was Known to Many People in This City

ORIGINALLY INTENDED TO GO TO NORTH POLE

In Winter of 1910-11 He Secured Magnificent Specimen of Wood Bison of North

Harry W. Radford of New York, who, together with George Street, of Eskimos, is reported as murdered by Indians in the Far North, was known for a number of people in the city. Radford was a former newspaper man and magazine writer in New York. In the spring of 1909 he announced his intention from New York of making a trip from Edmonton north. His ultimate destination was to have been the North Pole. This was before Radford located in the Northwest. From New York at that time declared that Radford would leave Edmonton in July—mid-summer—by dog train and snowshoes for the north. For provisions, he said he would carry only a few cases of mail and clothing and concentrated food.

Didn't Need Dog Train.
When he arrived in Edmonton he learned he would not need the dog train and shoes and arrived to make the journey north from here in July, and he started on his trip. A bag of his baggage consisted of various kinds of rifle, gun, gun and ammunition. Radford was a member of a number of the natural history organizations of the United States, among others the American Bison Association. He secured from the government here, before his trip, permission to obtain a specimen of the wood bison in the Northwest. In the winter of 1910-11, which he spent at Fort Smith, he did secure a magnificent specimen, which he brought to the city in the following spring, and later shipped to New York.

Accused Harren Lands.
He returned north in 1910 and wintered in the Northwest. In the spring of 1911, together with George Street, he started on an overland trip to the Harren Lands to the Northwest. He was on the shore of Hudson Bay. The two men explored the coast of the water of 1911-12 at Hanks Lake, which empties into Chesterfield Inlet. When he left in the spring of 1911, Radford tried to engage the services as guide and companion of Robert Durrell, the explorer, who was reported this week to have perished in the vicinity of the Harren Lands in the winter of 1910-11. He was unable to make arrangements with Durrell.

Arctic Club Deaths Story.
New York, Sept. 10.—Members of the Arctic Club here are aured at the report of the murder of H. W. Radford, a member of the club, who was reported to have perished in the vicinity of the Harren Lands in the winter of 1910-11. He was unable to make arrangements with Durrell.

CHINA READY TO GIVE JAPAN WHAT SHE ASKS

Repression of Anti-Japanese Outbreaks in Nanking Impossible—Another Outbreak to Japanese Fleet Occurs—China Counting on Anglo-Japanese Alliance.

Peking, Sept. 9.—The Japanese consul at Nanking today reported to the Japanese legation here another anti-Japanese incident at Nanking. As the whole monster, carrying a small flag designating his nationality, was travelling through the city yesterday, he was assaulted by Chinese soldiers. The soldiers, according to the report, were ordered by the Japanese legation to attack the Japanese flag, and after tearing it up, trampled the pieces under foot.

The situation in Nanking apparently does not alarm the Peking government. The Chinese officials, realizing the country's feebleness, express a willingness to accede to any demand that Japan may make. The authorities, however, seem unable to prevent the prevailing anti-Japanese feeling from breaking out occasionally.

The hope of the Chinese, it is felt, rests largely in the Anglo-Japanese alliance. Government officials believe that Great Britain does not deem Japanese aggression.
